2. The Badge Office provided special service for the CIA Emergency Planning Officer by fingerprinting and pulling pictures for thirty (30) persons assigned to the Emergency Group.

3. Arrangements were made to permit Colonel White unhampered entry into "I" Building for color photographing.

4. Several meetings were attended during this reporting period concerning the possibility of a flood. Various matters were discussed and resolved in case of an actual flood, such as the evacuation of buildings; use of the PBX-10 emergency radio; obtaining and testing of twenty-four walkie talkies; obtaining of flashlight batteries, canned heat (Stern) and two Stern stoves, food and food utensils; and the making of two thousand (2,000) emergency passes. Also, all Emergency Security Patrol equipment was checked.

5. A policy paper was completed on the procedure for the use of the Green and Red "7" on Agency Badges. The appropriate guard offices were given instructions relative to this matter.

6. During this reporting period, several arrangements were made to allow the admittance of non-Agency persons into the Washington Auditorium to view a "pipe organ", which was to be sold by GSA. All of these persons were given a proper escort.

7. A survey was conducted of the "Q" Building Cafeteria in connection with a possible unauthorized entrance. Security measures were established to prevent any such entry.
